

“ Education at the forefront of a child’s education”

Company Overview

Pure Education was launched to facilitate the process of recruiting education professionals, and to provide a thorough, professional, time-saving recruitment service. We understand that our role is about building strong relationships, and this is why 85% of our Teachers and many of our Schools, have been referred to us by others alike.

Our expertise and understanding of the education sector, enables us to fully identify your needs, and our aim is to provide the best possible service, through an intelligent and enthusiastic approach to our work, coupled with a genuine drive to deliver.

As parents and professional recruiters, we feel that one of the best skills we can offer is “to listen” and we aim to put an end to the objection we hear from many Schools that... “agencies don’t understand our needs”.

We have a breadth of experience in the education sector, this has led us to build an enviable reputation for quality, service delivery and satisfaction.
